Patricia Kay

“Patty” Ratigan, 64

June 6, 1955 - Nov. 28, 2019

PANAMA- Patricia Kay (Patty) Ratigan lived with her parents in Panama for her first fifty years. Upon the death of her mother in 2004, she moved into a Concerned Inc. group home in Harlan where she resided until her passing. Patty was a client at Concerned Inc. for nearly 45 years. She took great pride in her work and the friends and staff she met there.

Throughout her life, Patty was highly received and accepted by the good people of Panama and the workers and clients at Concerned Inc. Patty's outgoing personality and always friendly smile brought joy to those she encountered. She considered everyone she knew to be a friend and, of those, a select few were elevated to a “buddy pal” status.

Patty passed away peacefully on November 28, 2019 at Myrtue Memorial Hospital surrounded by her loving family.

Patty was preceded in death by her parents, Pat and Adeline Ratigan, and an infant brother. She is survived by her sister, Janet Block of Bellevue, NE, brothers Jim (Joyce) of Omaha, NE, Gary (Marcy) of Ankeny, Denny of Yutan, NE, and Tom (Lori) of Omaha, NE along with her nieces and nephews and their families.

A 10:30 AM Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated by Rev. David Smith S.J. on Saturday, November 30, 2019 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Panama. Janet Block, Jim Ratigan, Gary Ratigan, Denny Ratigan, and Tom Ratigan served as honorary urn bearers. Inurnment was held at St. Mary's Cemetery in Panama.

Pauley Jones Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
