James Myron Rosman 77

June 4, 1943 – August 31, 2020

OMAHA -James Myron Rosman, known as Jamie to friends and family, passed away peacefully in his home after a long bout with COPD and throat cancer. He was born in Harlan, Iowa, to the late Myron and Veronica (Gue) Rosman. He graduated from St. Francis Catholic High School and served as a sergeant in the U.S. Army from 1963 to 1969.

James married Edith Christensen on May 3, 1969. They moved to Omaha and raised three sons. Jamie worked for JC Penney and later for Glidden Paint. After his retirement, he proudly started a new career being a “stay-at-home grandpa” to his six grandchildren. He was a faithful member of Holy Ghost Catholic Church, served as an adult leader for the Boy Scouts and youth group. He enjoyed camping, fishing, gardening and tinkering with any small engine he could find.

James is survived by his wife of 51 years, Edith Rosman; sons, Brian (Julie), Kenny (Veronica) and Phillip Rosman, all of Omaha; brothers, Steve of Council Bluffs, Bill of Omaha and Rudy of McKinley, TX; sisters, Mary Lou Crowder of Glenwood, Iowa, and Elaine O’Grady of Council Bluffs; grandchildren, Shelby, Mackenzie, Chloe, Emily, Robert, Jack and Rachel Rosman; and many nieces and nephews all over the country.

Funeral mass was Saturday, Sept. 5, 2020 at 10:00 AM at Holy Ghost Catholic Church in Omaha. Visitation was Friday beginning at 5:00 PM, followed by a Wake Service at 7:00 PM, also at Holy Ghost. Private inurnment will be later at St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Cemetery.
